..... to me there is nothing
complicated about ordinary equality.

Alice Paul

ALICE PAUL TOASTING THE RATIFICATION OF THE 19TH AMENDMENT BY THE LAST
STATE NEEDED
(TENNESSEE) IN AUGUST,
1920.

Alice Paul (my grandmother's cousin) was one of the most prominent activists in the women's suffrage movement. She founded the National Woman's Party, protested as a "Silent Sentinel", was arrested and treated brutally many times, co-authored the original Equal Rights Amendment in 1923 and continued fighting for women's rights until her death in 1977.
