Wednesday afternoon, Viki is leading a class on making endless prairie points.

Veteran’s Project – Rose – 29 quilts this year alone. 584 quilts given to date. Next week on Wednesday is a great workshop.

Workshops and Programs - Pamela/Lynn – Next month’s program is by Penni Myers - Nifty Notions – What to do with this???
September workshop will cost $65 ... led by Colleen Wise.

Program – Charisma Horton Trunk Show

Lives in Deer Park a small town beyond Spokane, Washington. Has 6 kids, never grew up around quilters, but loved art. Designs fabric, contributes to magazines, and leads quilting cruises.

She told a beautiful story of her career changes into doing quilting with some great anecdotes along the way. She gave back stories about how she fell into the different parts of her career as a Michael Miller ambassador ,leading to her new line of fabric under Timeless Treasures called Live Boldly (pink barns and chickens). She always has saying somewhere in her quilts, because she believes positive words have great power. And from a quilt show meeting, she met Jenny Doan and then traveled to Missouri to film some segments.

Showed some beautiful quilts full of bright color and deep meanings.

Raffles:

Block of the Month – And the Winner is . . . Pam Grindell

Quilters Surprise – Tamara Craig winning an Ott Lite Desk light

Nifty Notion – K. Fort winning a box of pins and a magnetic pin cushion

Show and Share:

1. Purses/Bags made in a mini retreat shown by Pam Grindell, Toni Brody, Jan McQueen, and Elizabeth Wood. Knotty Knitters
2. Betty Wilson showed a block of a camper applique she made for the small quilt auction.
3. K. Fort – Beautiful blue hue quilt that was a Bargello pattern.
4. Pat Laub – First was for youngest granddaughter – Unicorns in Pink... Second was Kit from boutique last year blue flowers.
5. Marianne - Stand Mixer paper piecing - found pattern on web. Then a ByAnnie pattern for a purse. Both beautiful.
6. Jan McQueen – Pattern from Ann's stash of Cats through the different season/holidays. Totally adorable.
