Began sewing when she was a small child with her grandmother. Got first sewing machine for 8th grade graduation. She gives her ability to move through each new challenge to her father making her learn to row a boat at a young age.

She encouraged the members of the audience to “Embrace being a quilter”. Don’t worry about how good you are or that you don’t know differing techniques. Just Embrace the joy of quilting and the love you put into your work.

Check out her web site for free newsletters or membership to classes at QuiltShow.com. Look for her on Facebook or YouTube for shows.
